

DOING DEBATING DEVELOPMENT

Presented by the Community Development Graduate Group

Spring 2009

Thursdays, 4:00pm-5:00pm

3201 Hart Hall

This quarter's DDD will showcase the completed and in-progress work of Community Development Graduate students.

April 9: Kendra Bridges

Exploring Regional Inequalities: Mapping the Sacramento Region.

April 16: Chunling Wang

Community Participation in Climate Protection Actions: A Case Study of Climate Change and Community Sustainability Planning in the City of Davis, California.

April 23: Rosa Ramirez

The Built Environment & Migration: A Case Study in Mexico.

April 30: Aubrey White

Not Yet Glowing: Sacramento Delta Anglers and the Distant Hum of Risk.

May 7: Sarah Foster

Knowledge and Control in an Open-ended Art Environmental Education Program.

May 14: Whitney Wilcox

Community Media and Development: Digital Storytelling in Low-Income and Marginalized Communities.

May 21: William Youngblood

Image, Imagination and Memory of Space: Contributing Factors in House Size Preference.

May 28: Ellen Seeley

How Do Pedestrians Fare in Struggling Sacramento Suburbs?

June 4: Elissaint Jean Jacques

Faith-Based Organizations and Community Change in Haiti.